ECHOES OF RADIANCE

Autumn 2025

Echoes of Radiance invites you into a realm of opportunity, empowerment, and creativity. This mesmerising space unveils a sanctuary of magic and beauty, enticing you to feel inspired by the warmth and rays of light, as our artists' work centres around the celebration of finding the mystical radiance and the power within your own self that echoes through your soul.

Art isn't just made to be observed. It's made to express and glow — to spark new thoughts and feelings, whispers of new energies. We invite you to embrace its transformative vision, to feel uplifted by the light as you walk the currents of calming energy. Immerse yourself in the quiet, enchanting voices that linger in every form and colour.

DANIC LAGO

About the artist:

Danic Lago is a London based mixed media artist, who specialises in intricate manual 3D collages layered with a highly curated mix of materials. From paper, wood, watercolour, to ink, acrylic, gold leaf, fabrics, dried leaves, mosses, pieces of trees and stones, Danic's work is strongly inspired by feminine power in haute couture fashion.

CRYSTAL

Story: A cheeky red fairy twirls at the centre of this mixed media collage, her glittering wings stitched from foil and thread. Her expression is sly, as if she's just scattered secrets across the page.

Size: 24H x 34W x 5D (cm)

Price: £800

VINATHA REDDY

About the artist:

Vinatha Reddy is an Indian-born British artist based in London, England. Being immersed in two cultures has shaped every aspect of her life, including her creative expression. This dual influence is reflected in her choice of colours and the way Vinatha layers paint, adding texture that makes her artworks deeply personal and unique. Working primarily with acrylic and mixed media, using techniques such as impasto and graffito, bring depth and movement to her pieces.

NATURE'S FURY

Story: A reminder that ultimately, we are all at the mercy of natural forces. An ode to the dynamic and often unpredictable energy that surrounds us in the natural world.

ELENI PAVLI

About the artist:

Eleni was raised in North London and is Greek Cypriot by heritage. Growing up, her family was in the fashion trade and hairdressing. This found her spending time immersed in fabrics and embellishments around her, connecting with the world of beauty, moved and inspired by the shapes, colours and textures. Eleni began discovering her expression through drawing and experimented with various mediums on her journey connecting with her artistic voice and later studied Fine Art in Hampshire. She has exhibited at various London locations, including showing at The Loop Gallery Billboard exhibition in East London, The Brick Lane Gallery as well as being featured by the BBC for her work in the Passion for Freedom exhibition. Eleni has also been well received at various cultural fixtures including the art and makers section at Cross the Tracks music festival.

FLOWERS

Story: Flowers represent both growth and vulnerability. This work is a take on the characteristics of femininity exploring vulnerability and strength embodied in flowers. Flowers are soft, yet they grow in wild environments under different circumstances, withstand different forces but stay resilient and yet they still remain soft. Regardless of facing harsh weather, they can still bloom, maintain their beauty and still grow. This work symbolizes our growth as people and is a metaphoric discussion of our journey and perseverance.
